

Helping You Get Started With No-Stress Accounts Receivable Financing

Accounts receivable financing is one of the best business tools available for companies of any size. It can fund the growth of small businesses and help stabilize cash flow. For larger businesses, financing receivables wisely can minimize the costs of doing business and supplement existing capital at just the right time. In both cases, this flexible type of financing allows you to rely less on traditional loans and still take advantage of incredible opportunities.

The Best Short-Term Loans Around

Getting started with AR financing gives you access to immediate capital when you need it. Instead of having to go through a lengthy loan approval process, and possibly utilize collateral, you can use your company's own accounts receivables to generate a swift infusion of cash. You don't have to risk business assets or possess perfect credit. All you need are unpaid invoices from trustworthy clients and you're practically ready to begin. Here are a few ways to use AR financing:

- Inventory purchases
- Equipment upgrades
- Lease payments or down payments
- Payroll
- Taxes
- Business emergencies
- Cash flow difficulties
